Introducing IMI Switzerland

IMI International Management Institute Switzerland is a private hospitality and business school founded in 1991. Our combination of quality academic teaching, excellent industry contacts and breathtaking scenery is a recipe for success. IMI graduates can be found in senior management positions around the globe - their success shows that to reach the top it pays to start at the top!

Academic Excellence

IMI is a successful, independent, private management institute. We have a highly qualified core faculty, supported by inspiring visiting lecturers. Our small classes assure personal attention while our impressive UK university accreditations guarantee quality.

This is Switzerland

Every day you will enjoy fresh, delicious food sourced from the local area. Only 12 minutes away is the stunning, historic city of Luzern, with its cultural events and vibrant café culture. Situated in the heart of Europe, you can easily take the train to Paris, Rome or Berlin.

Your Employability

Paid internship opportunities (min. monthly salary of 2'212 CHF in Switzerland for hospitality placements) are available after each study semester. International companies visit IMI regularly to recruit students. Our Careers team will offer personalised support to provide you with the best opportunities.

The IMI Family

Our aim is to prepare you for a great future, rich in international experiences. There are around 50 nationalities on our 'global village' campus and you will have the opportunity to learn French and German in one of the safest and most beautiful countries in the world.

Undergraduate Programmes

Each semester block represents 22 weeks of on-campus study. There is the option of a paid, 22-week internship placement after each study semester...

*The Foundation Certificate prepares students for university study and gives them a good foundation in the world of hospitality and business. On completion, students will be ready to progress to the first stage of their BA (Hons) degree course. To join this programme, students should be at least 17 years old, have completed high school and have an IELTS level of 4.5 or equivalent. For some nationalities, an online English assessment is possible instead of IELTS.

BA (Hons) in International Hospitality Management

Our BA (Hons) degree in hospitality management is validated by Manchester Metropolitan University in the UK and provides practical work placements alongside three semesters of study. In the final year, students can specialise in a combination of Hotel, Tourism and Events Management or Hospitality Entrepreneurship. Paid internship placements, which can be undertaken in Switzerland or internationally, offer invaluable experience which sets graduates apart and prepares them to progress towards management positions within the industry.

BA (Hons) in International Culinary Arts

This programme is offered by IMI's International Culinary Institute (ICI) and is validated by Oxford Brookes University in the UK. Its blend of practical and theoretical skills allows students to perfect their culinary abilities while at the same time developing core industry management knowledge. Students spend approximately 30% of their time in the kitchen and 70% in the classroom, balancing the gastro-culinary skills with the strategies and techniques required to run a successful business. Paid internship placements, which can be undertaken in Switzerland or world-wide, offer the possibility for students to gain experience at leading, internationally acclaimed restaurants. Graduates from this degree will be equally adept to either work as a chef in a fine-dining kitchen or open and manage their own culinary business.

Diplom Hôte/ère-Restaurateur/rice HF

currently under recognition by the SBFI

Taught in English and enhancing students' intercultural leadership, this programme provides experience in all hotel departments. Students develop into experienced hospitality professionals with a holistic overview of the industry. There is a practical approach with industry training throughout their learning and a strong focus on language skills. Year 1 introduces the basics of hospitality and service management alongside essential university-level study skills. Year 2 develops management and strategy techniques with an overview of front office and food production. Year 3 explores advanced decision-making techniques and higher-level management strategy. Successful completion of the programme entitles students to the Diplom Hôte/ère-Restaurateur/rice HF and allows them to progress directly to the final semester of IMI's International Hospitality Management BA (Hons) Degree.
